

Android Remote Monitor App

An mobile application for parents to monitor their children. The application and the website work in pair to deliver a child monitor system. Parents can monitor the location, audio, and picture from their children's devices on the website. This is a new area that no other mobile applications have fulfilled yet. Parents want to protect their children 24/7, without making the children to feel being monitored. An application like this could help protect millions of children.